Old Business

- Tour of Empire Tribal Lands was postponed until the next meeting, September 11, 2017.
- KRA presence at Community Family nights was discussed. Pam Lenox and Janet Simpson agreed to attend the End of Summer BBQ on August 24th to conduct a KRA 50/50.

New Business

- The August Garage Sale Raffle winners were drawn from the hopper by Jennifer Trospen and Janet Simpson. Kenneth Shea won for Friday and Mike and Pam Lenox won for Saturday. The signs on Cape Arago pointing into Kilkich as well as timing the sale to coincide with the Charleston Seafood Celebration seemed to help draw shoppers.
- It was decided to revisit KRA participation at the Mid-Winter gathering at the next meeting.

- Jennifer Trospen mentioned that KRA scholarship money for non-tribal resident children had been used for many activities and was appreciated by the families who received funds. New funds would be needed for the new school year. Pam Lenox agreed to check last year's Treasurer's report to find out how much we spent on Christmas gift cards for non-resident families and the Holiday Decoration Raffle so the Board will be able to discuss how much we might be able to donate to the Scholarship Fund next month.
- There has been no KRA email activity.
