Salmon Ceremony: 8:00 a.m. – Bullard's Beach West Day Use

The Salmon Ceremony is an annual event to honor the salmon. The bones of the first salmon are returned to the river on an out-going tide, so that the fish will tell the others that we are grateful, honorable people. Salmon Bake: 11:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. – Kilkich Community Plankhouse

Cooking salmon in the pit has been part of Coquille tradition for years. While we may not be able to gather around the fire pit, we would still like to share salmon together.

While we are not encouraging our membership to travel, those in the area are invited to drive to the Plankhouse on Saturday, June 26th from 11 a.m. to 12 p.m. and receive cooked salmon (sides not included). Please stay in your car! We will have a staff member bring a to-go box to you.

Traditional Foods:

We want to encourage you and your family to gather traditional foods, wherever you're located. If you have questions about types of foods or how to gather and process them, please contact Cultural Activities Coordinator, Jennifer ViksneHill at jenniferviksnehill@coquilletribe.org.

We will then take time to honor and pay tribute to those that have walked on since we last gathered in 2020. Concluding the tribute, we will celebrate our Tribe's future by recognizing and honoring our graduates.
