Old Business

- Emergency Preparedness – No news but maybe in the future. Shelley will reach out to Jessica Hamner to find out what's going on.
- Kilkich Forest – Rocky will check with Council and report back to us.

New Business

- Pam shared with the Board that she met with Cassie and Alyssa at the Wellness Center regarding the "Every Child is Sacred" promotion. After discussing the lateness of the Wellness Center's request, it was agreed that KRA will do the following: add $60.00 to the raffle prize money bringing the total for three winners to $50.00 each. Pam will contact Alyssa about getting the flyer created. We will note the addresses of those who participate (Scott). Tracey will review and then print flyers. KRA will draw the winning names and deliver the prizes. CIHA will have pinwheels and signs available for residents as will the Wellness Center. In the future KRA will start thinking about this April activity in February.

- Restoration Fundraising – KRA will do the following: a Pendleton blanket raffle, a 50/50, and a Silent Auction of quality Native American items. Shelley shared with the Board that she had already received an agreement from The Mill’s gift shop for a donated gift basket and Council has also agreed to provide a Pendleton blanket. Pam and Shelly will work on the items in the KRA shed for the Silent Auction. Alison agreed to speak with Nichole about where we might set up and when to get the most exposure for the sale. She will also assist with communications and advertising the sale.
- New Construction on Kilkich – Alison will contact Fauna to see if a clearer map or something more understandable is available for residents to review regarding the new traffic pattern being constructed on Kilkich. The KRA Board will ask that residents be informed as decisions are made.
