EMERGENCY RENTAL ASSISTANCE PROGRAM POLICY

SECTION I. PURPOSE

- A. This Emergency Rental Assistance Program Policy (“Policy”) shall govern the Coquille Indian Housing Authority (“CIHA”) Emergency Rental Assistance Program (“ERAP”).
- B. Homelessness and housing instability pose an immediate and imminent threat to the health, safety, and well-being of American Indian and Alaska Native (AIAN) families. The purpose of ERAP is to provide assistance with payment for emergency shelter, rents and utilities, and arrearages for the same, and related costs necessary to become or remain stably housed for low-income Coquille Tribal members and other AIAN families located within the Tribe’s five-county service area. ERAP is designed to assist eligible households whose income is at or below the greater of 80% of Area Median Income or 80% of National Median Income, who face homelessness or housing instability because they are unable to pay rent and utilities.
- C. Notwithstanding any provision set forth in any other CIHA Policy, receipt of assistance from ERAP established under this Policy shall not make the Recipient or Recipient family eligible or ineligible for assistance under any other CIHA policy or program.
- D. Nothing in this Policy shall be construed to invalidate any otherwise legitimate grounds for eviction.
- E. Assistance to be provided under ERAP is subject to availability of funds. No applicant or household determined to be eligible is entitled to or has a property right to receive funding under ERAP. When funding for ERAP is fully expended, ERAP may be suspended or terminated. CIHA may terminate this Program at any time.
- F. Assistance under ERAP shall not exceed six months or $12,500 per household per fiscal year, whichever comes first, and is capped at 12 months or $25,000 total lifetime assistance. Program participation is subject to demonstrated need and no applicant or household is entitled to the maximum level of assistance. If a household has reached the maximum level of assistance permitted or is otherwise no longer eligible for assistance under ERAP, participation will be suspended or terminated.
- G. ERAP assistance shall be supplemental to other available forms of assistance.

  - 2. CIHA may not provide ERAP assistance to homeowners to cover their mortgage payment, utilities, or energy costs, except:
    - a. CIHA may provide financial assistance to households that are renting their residence under a “rent-to-own” agreement, under which the Applicant has the option (or obligation) to purchase the property at the end of the lease term, provided that a member of the Applicant’s household:

5. Term. CIHA shall provide Financial Assistance for a period not to exceed six months or $12,500 per household per fiscal year, whichever comes first, subject to the availability of funds. Assistance is capped at 12 months or $25,000 total lifetime assistance.
6. Distribution of Financial Assistance
  - a. For all Financial Assistance for Rent Arrears, Utility Costs Arrears, Current Rent, Current Utility Costs, or Rental Deposits provided to an Eligible Household, CIHA will make payments to the Landlord or utility provider on behalf of the Eligible Household.
    1. CIHA must make reasonable efforts to obtain the cooperation of Landlords and utility providers to accept payments from ERAP. Outreach will be considered complete if:
      - A. a request for participation is sent in writing, by certified mail, to the Landlord or utility provider, and the addressee does not respond to the request within seven calendar days after mailing;
      - B. if CIHA has made at least three attempts by phone, text, or email over a five calendar-day period to request the Landlord or utility provider's participation; or
      - C. the Landlord confirms in writing that the Landlord does not wish to participate.

2. Exception. If, after CIHA’s outreach to the Landlord or utility provider, the Landlord or utility provider does not agree to accept such payment from CIHA, CIHA may make such payments directly to the Eligible Household for the purpose of making payments to the Landlord or utility provider.
  - b. For any payments made by CIHA to a Landlord or utility provider on behalf of an Eligible Household, CIHA shall provide documentation of such payments to such household.
7. Prospective Obligations. If a tenant does not have a current rental obligation, CIHA may provide otherwise Eligible Households with an official document specifying the amount of Financial Assistance under ERAP that CIHA will pay the Landlord on behalf of the Eligible Household (such as for a rental/security deposit or rent) if the Landlord and Eligible Household enters into a qualifying lease of at least six months. Such documentation shall expire 30 days after the issuance date.
8. Other Eligible Expenses.

Payments for Other Eligible Expenses will be paid directly to the provider of such services, subject to the same terms and conditions, and same exceptions, as payments to Landlords and utility providers.
9. Rental Deposits. The amount of a Rental Deposit should not exceed one month’s rent, capped at HUD Fair Market Rent for the local area.
10. Special Rules and Procedures for Hotel/Motel Lodging. CIHA will provide Financial Assistance to cover emergency hotel/motel lodging only where:
  - a. The Eligible Household demonstrates or attests that it is in immediate need of housing and would otherwise be without housing except for lodging in a hotel or motel; or
  - b. CIHA has determined that it would be at least as cost-effective offering Financial Assistance for a hotel/motel stay as compared to providing other forms of assistance.

CIHA may periodically reassess whether Eligible Households staying at a hotel/motel remains cost-effective as compared to providing other forms of assistance.
11. Duplication of Assistance. An Eligible Household that occupies a subsidized residential or mixed-use property may receive ERAP assistance, provided that ERAP funds are not applied to costs that have been or will be reimbursed under any other form of assistance. To the extent feasible, CIHA will ensure that any Financial Assistance provided to an Eligible Household pursuant to ERAP is not duplicative of any other rental assistance provided to such household.

COQUILLE INDIAN HOUSING AUTHORITY

---

- a. If an Eligible Household receives a monthly federal subsidy (e.g., a Housing Choice Voucher, Public Housing, or Project-Based Rental Assistance) and the Eligible Household's rent is adjusted according to changes in income, the Eligible Household may not receive ERAP assistance to cover the portion of the rental payment or utilities that has been subsidized, but ERAP assistance can be provided to pay the Eligible Household's owed portion of Rent, capped at HUD Fair Market Rent for the local area, or Utility Costs (i.e., the amount that the Eligible Household is required to pay out of its own funds to the Landlord or utility provider).
- b. If an Eligible Household receives rental assistance other than through ERAP, ERAP assistance may only be used to pay for costs, such as the tenant-paid portion of Rent, capped at HUD Fair Market Rent for the local area, and Utility costs, that are not paid for by the other rental assistance. CIHA must review the Eligible Household's income and sources of assistance to confirm that ERAP assistance does not duplicate any other assistance, including federal, state, and local assistance provided for the same costs.

12. Treatment of Assistance. Assistance provided to an Eligible Household from ERAP will not be regarded as Income and will not be regarded as a resource for purposes of determining the eligibility of the Eligible Household or any member of the Eligible Household for benefits or assistance, or the amount or extent of benefits or assistance, under any other CIHA program.

C. Prohibition on Evictions by Landlords

1. Landlords that receive ERAP funds under this Program for current rent, as a condition of receiving the funds, may not evict an Applicant for nonpayment of rent during the period covered by the Financial Assistance.
2. In addition, landlords that receive ERAP funds under this Program for rental arrears, as a condition of receiving the funds, may not evict an Applicant for nonpayment of rent during the period covered by the Financial Assistance, consistent with applicable law.
3. Landlords who receive direct payments under this Program will be required to sign an agreement with CIHA to ensure compliance with the prohibitions under this Section, as well as to commit to use the funds received for the purposes permitted under this Program.

D. Housing Stability Services. Applicants and Recipients may be referred to Tribal or other supportive services programs for assistance with case management, obtaining and maintaining employment, and other services necessary to achieve housing stability. CIHA

SECTION IV. ELIGIBILITY

- A. Eligibility Requirements. In order to be eligible to apply for ERAP, at the time the Applicant applies to the Program the Applicant must meet the following eligibility requirements:
1. The Applicant must be referred by a recognized social or community services provider that assists families in crisis. Initial and/or continued eligibility may require participation in case management and supportive services, and verifiable efforts to obtain stable housing and employment, as appropriate.
  2. The Applicant must demonstrate application to other sources of assistance known to be available to persons of similar circumstances, or clearly demonstrate that no other means of support are reasonably available to assist their household and its members. ERAP assistance may be accessed during an application or waiting period for other potential sources of assistance.
  3. The Applicant is homeless, unstably housed, or part of a household of one or more individuals who are occupying as tenants and obligated to pay rent on a residential dwelling and with respect to which CIHA determines—
    - a. That one or more individuals within the house has:
      1. Qualified for unemployment benefits as evidenced by a written attestation signed by the Applicant or other relevant documentation regarding the household member's qualification for unemployment benefits, or provider, law enforcement, or other professional with knowledge of the Applicant's circumstances; or

3. Any other evidence of such risk, as determined by CIHA, which evidence may include documentary or photographic evidence, court or police records, or, when no other evidence can be obtained, a written attestation from a qualified social or community services provider, law enforcement, or other professional official with knowledge of the Applicant's circumstances; and
- c. The household meets at least one of the following income, citizenship, and geographic criteria:
1. The household is located within the Tribe's five-county service area, contains one family member (regardless of whether that member is an adult or head of household) who is AIAN, and has a household income that is not more than the greater of 80% of the Area Median Income or 80% of the National Median Income for the household; or
  2. The household is relocating to or from the Tribe's five-county service area for the purpose of obtaining stable housing, employment, or supportive services, contains one family member (regardless of whether that member is an adult or head of household) who is AIAN, and has a household income that is not more than the greater of 80% of the Area Median Income or 80% of the National Median Income for the household.

B. Income Determination. In determining the income of a household for purposes of determining such household's eligibility for ERAP assistance, CIHA will consider the gross income of all adult household members. Income earned by household members who are minors or full-time students and are not considered heads of household is excluded. While household assets should be identified to determine that a program applicant lacks the resources to obtain or retain permanent housing, they are generally not counted as income.

1. Annual Income. CIHA may consider the household's gross annual income for the prior calendar year.
  - a. Annual Income. CIHA may choose between using the definition of "annual income" as provided by HUD in 24 CFR 5.609 or using adjusted gross income as defined for purposes of reporting under Internal Revenue Service (IRS) Form 1040 series for individual Federal annual income tax purposes.
  - b. For determining annual income, CIHA should obtain at the time of application source documents evidencing annual income (e.g., wage statement, interest statement, unemployment compensation statement), or a copy of Form 1040 as filed with the IRS for the household.

2. Monthly Income. Subject to subparagraph (a) below, CIHA may determine income based on sufficient confirmation of the household's monthly income at the time of Application for such assistance and extrapolating over a 12-month period to determine whether household income exceeds the greater of 80% of Area Median Income or 80% of National Median Income.
  - a. In the case of income determined based on monthly income under the preceding subparagraph (2), CIHA shall be required to re-determine the eligibility of a household's income each month for which the household receives ERAP assistance.
    1. For determining monthly income, CIHA must obtain income source documentation for at least the two months prior to the submission of the application for assistance.
3. Documentation of Income Determination. Applicant must provide sufficient information to CIHA to enable CIHA to have a reasonable basis under the circumstances for determining income. Except as discussed below, this generally requires a written attestation from the Applicant as to household income and also documentation available to the applicant to support the determination of income, such as paystubs, W-2s or other wage statements, tax filings, bank statements demonstrating regular income, Social Security award letters, or an attestation from an employer. As discussed below, under limited circumstances, CIHA may rely on a written attestation from the applicant without further documentation of household income. CIHA has the discretion to provide waivers or exceptions to this documentation requirement to accommodate disabilities, extenuating circumstances, or a lack of technological access. In these cases, CIHA is still responsible for making the required determination regarding the Applicant's household income and documenting that determination.
4. Categorical Eligibility. If an Applicant's household income has been verified to be at or below the greater of 80% of the Area Median Income or 80% of the National Median Income in connection with another tribal, local, state, or federal government assistance program, CIHA may rely on a determination letter from the government agency that verified the applicant's household income, provided that the determination for such program was made within 30 days prior to application for ERAP assistance.
5. Written Attestation Without Further Documentation. To the extent that a household's income, or a portion thereof, is not verifiable (e.g., because a place of employment has closed) or has been received in cash, or if the household has no qualifying income, CIHA will accept a written attestation from the Applicant regarding household income. If such a written attestation without further documentation is relied on, CIHA will reassess household income for such household monthly. In appropriate cases, CIHA will rely on an attestation from a caseworker or other professional with knowledge of a household's circumstances to certify that an applicant's household income qualifies for assistance.
